DETAILED ACTION

1. The Preliminary Amendment filed December 31, 2004 has been received.

According to the Amendment, claims 1-4, 6-12, 14-16, 18-20, 22, 24, and 26 have been canceled; claims 5, 13, 17, 21, 23, and 25 have been amended; and new claim 27 have been added. Currently, claims 5, 13, 17, 21, 23, 25, and 27 are pending in the application. Acknowledgment has been made.

2. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

3. Claims 5, 13, 17, 21, 23, 25, and 27 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1, 5, 8, 11, 12, and 13 of U.S. Patent No. 6,676,523. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because claims 1, 5, 8, 11, 12, and 13 of U.S. Patent No. 6,676,523 cover all limitations of claims 5, 13, 17, 21, 23, 25, and 27 except for the feature of "wherein the accent types displayed are prepared in accordance with the number of characters of the set character string".

Note that, the feature of "wherein the accent types displayed are prepared in accordance with the number of characters of the set character string" is inherent from the limitations of "inputting and setting by the player a character string representing a way of calling the player character in according with an operation of the player... a plurality of accent types of the voice message are displayed on a screen to enable the player to select them at will," as claimed by both the U.S. Patent No. 6,676,523 and the instant application, since inputting and setting the character string would generate the displayed accent and eventually present the accent types.

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The limitations of inputting and setting by the player a character string indicating a way of calling the player character in accordance with the operation of the player; and creating and registering a voice message for the game character calling to the player character in accordance with a progress of the game, on the basis of the set character string indicating the way of calling the player character or a preset calling word, wherein in creating and registering the voice message, more than one accent type of the voice message is displayed on a screen to enable the player to select one at will, in combination with other presented limitations, are neither disclosed nor taught by the art of record.

Claims 5, 13, 17, 21, 23, 25, and 27, therefore, are allowable if the applicants timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c).

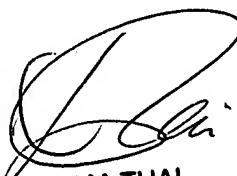

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
